

Maltese Journal of Occupational Therapy

Ms. Stephanie Hercegovic

Ms. Charmaine Mifsud

Ms. Rachel Cini

MJOT

- The official journal of MAOT
- Aims: to encourage sharing of knowledge and to encourage discussion and debate on current local/international OT practice.
- A biannual peer-reviewed publication-
important for WFOT recognition

Types of Submission

- Research papers (4,500 words)
- Critical reviews (4,500 words)
- Practice analysis/ Professional work experiences (2,000) words
- Opinion piece/ position paper (1,500 words)
- Editorials (500 words)
- Book reviews (500 words)

Submission Guidelines

- The paper/article must neither be previously published nor under consideration for publication by another journal
- Submitted as a Microsoft Word file, Times New Roman 12 and double spaced.
- APA reference system
- Acknowledgement of any conflict of interest

Submission guidelines...

- Participants consent forms Consent forms for the use of previously published pictures and diagrams
- Key words related to the article, to facilitate indexing
- Acknowledgement note
- Author contact details
- An anonymous copy for peer review

Process of Publication

- Article/Paper received by editorial board
- Peer Reviewing
- Amendments
- Reviewed by editorial board/peer reviewers
- Publication

Peer Reviewers

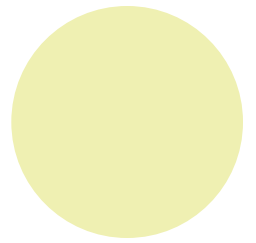

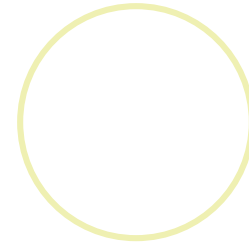

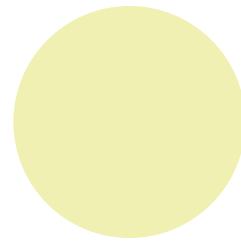

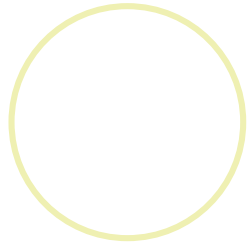

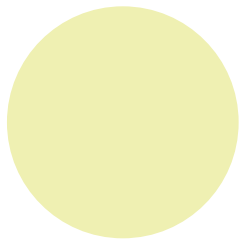

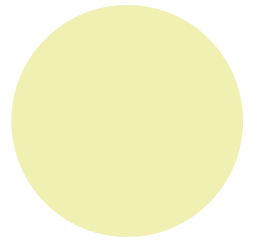

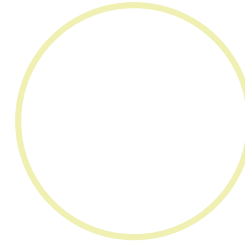

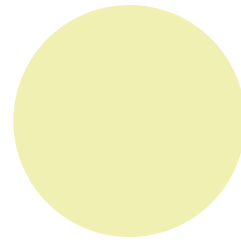

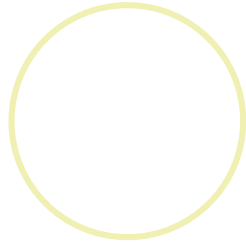

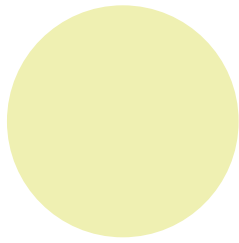

- A double-blinded process – 2 reviewers will go through the article independently of each other. If the two reviewers do not agree on the quality or suitability of the article, a third reviewer will be involved.
- Role – to analyse the technical and ethical aspects of the anonymous paper.

Peer reviewing...

- Following review, the author might be asked for amendments
- Article will be reviewed again and will be published, if it fulfills all criteria
- The author will be given a copy of the final version and asked for verification.

Thank
k You